

Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance

Overall aim...To provide students with an understanding of the world of work and career pathways available to them in order to support them in making informed decisions throughout their secondary school journey as well as post 16.

